

Doreen is married to John and they have two sons. They have lived in Wareham for 44 years, having moved here from Croydon in 1976, and love living here. For a number of years John and Doreen have been members of the congregation of Lady St. Mary's Parish Church, helping to set up the Holy Communion. Doreen joined the Town Council in 1991 and considers it a privilege to represent and help the people of Wareham. She is the Chairman of the Museum Committee, and the Town Council's representative on the Twinning Association between Wareham, Hemsbach in Germany, and Conches-En-Ouche in France. Doreen has also had the honour of being Town Mayor three times, in 2001, 2011 and 2016. 'It is a great way to give something back to the people of Wareham who have welcomed us to their town.'
